WASHINGTON (UPI) - PRESIDENT CARTER WILL MAKE STANSFIELD TURNER HISTORY'S MOST POWERFUL CIA DIRECTOR BY GIVING HIM BUDGET CONTROL OVER THE TWO LARGEST DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCIES, SCRIPPS-HOWARD NEWS SERVICE SAID TODAY.

THE AGENCIES ARE THE NATIONAL RECONNAISSANCE ORGANIZATION, IN CHARGE OF SPY SATELLITES; AND THE NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY. THE AGENCIES SPEND ABOUT $3-BILLION A YEAR, SCRIPPS-HOWARD SAID.

"ADMIRAL TURNER WILL BE THE MOST POWERFUL DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE IN HISTORY," THE NEWS SERVICE QUOTED A WHITE HOUSE SOURCE. "BUT THE ADMIRAL WILL NOT BE AN INTELLIGENCE CZAR."

SCRIPPS-HOWARD SAID CARTER'S DECISION WILL BE ANNOUNCED SOON, GIVING TURNER ONLY A PARTIAL VICTORY AFTER A THREE-MONTH BATTLE WITH DEFENSE SECRETARY HAROLD BROWN OVER BUDGET CONTROL OF THOSE AGENCIES.

THE NEWS SERVICE SAID THAT UNDER A COMPROMISE BROWN WILL BE PERMITTED TO APPEAL TURNER'S BUDGET DECISIONS TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL. WHITE HOUSE SOURCES SAID THE COMPROMISE WAS SUGGESTED BY VICE PRESIDENT WALTER MONDALE AND BUDGET DIRECTOR BERT LANCE.
